President's Report

Tim Walters

Primary activities since the last Update:

Local:

- Worked with Bob Eby á (•f•...‡ á 'f)" 'ŽŽ f•† -Ї ... 'ŽŽ‡‰‡ï• Žf™): detailed budget information for the past decade. This information is immediately necessary to complete the exceptional work done by George Davison (FPSE Treasurer) on administrative density at colleges throughout the province, and in the longer term is a very useful negotiations tool. We are now in possession of comprehensive budget data for each year following the split, and are working with the OC lawyers to access financial information from prior to the split.
- Worked with my colleagues on the bargaining committee to process the results of the bargaining surveys and prepare our proposals for ratification at the WGM
- Worked with the STH Dean, the Executive, and our Science, Technology, laed the Council Reps to begin hiring for the forthcoming SCMT program.
- With other council and Executive members, I attended five of the winter socials: Term,

- o Associate Dean positions will continue to be available to internal candidates only.
- Met with the two BCGEUPresidents Cam McRobb (Vocational) and Dianne Crommer

 Evaluation Program. Both seem interested and will poll their members to confirm future participation.
- Attended a Kelowna rally in support of locked out IBEW 213 Fortis workers with other members of the Executive and Council, and presented them with a donation from the OCFA.

 - o How our colleagues at BC research universities are faring following a meeting with the President of CUFA
 - o Upcoming proposed (minor) adjustments to the college pension plan
 - The state of provincial public sector bargaining. Most groups that have settled thus far (HSA, BCGEU deter) have accepted something in the vicinity of a 5.5% pay raise over 5 years, along with assorted minor contractual improvements.
 - The potential risks associated with being a society rather than a union proper.
 As a result, our Secretary Treasurer Michle Nicholson is working with our FPSE staff representative Zoe Towle to find out whether to and how to make this transition.
 - o The forthcoming anti-harassment and bullying training programs at all locals.
- I represented the OCFA at the BC Federation of Labroconvention. Highlights included:
 - o --ॠ(•‰ f "fŽŽ) f- Ї f) '"(-‡•-(•‰ -Ї ...(•'f•)ï• "‡ Bangladesh Accord, a pact that would protect the rights of the garment workers who make their clothes in sweatshops around the world, and which wold have prevented the 1138 workers from dying in April in what Jim Sinclair aptly called f• f ...- (^) (•†-•-"(fŽ •--"†‡"ä) Š-• ^f"á -Ї (•Ž) f•f accord is Joe Fresh: The Bay, Canadian Tire, Marks Work Wearhouse and Lululemon have all refused to sign.Shop accordinglyCoverage of the march was the headline story on the CTV evening new attp://bc.ctvnews.ca/protesters - storm-the-bay-in-vancouver-over-factory-workers-rights-1.1560198. Bangladeshi union leader and force of nature Kalpona Akter the march and later gave a disturbing speech about the conditions inside the factories where most of our clothes are made, and talked about how little it would cost corporations and consumers to make these workers safe and compensate them fairly.

- An exceptional keynote by Sarah Lasleta labour professor with the Washington State Labor Education and Research Centre about the future of American (and likely thus also Canadian) unions and the part Worker's centres might/must play in the future of the l f " ' " ' ~ ‡ ‡ – á ™ Š ‹ … Š ‹ ' Ž › ' ‡ ' f " ' ^ movement.
- I participated in multiple FPSE conference calls about:
 - o The BCGEU Mastergreement deal and its implications for public sector bargaining
 - o Upcoming (minor) proposed changes to the pension pha
