Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course students will be able to:

- 1.

Evaluation Procedure

Individual Evaluation *
Individual Leadership Plan	30%
Course Exam	30%
Total Individual Evaluation (Leadership Plan, Exam) *		60%
Team Work Assignments		30%
Class Participation and Miscellaneous Assignments		10%
Total		100%

Notes

*To pass the course students must obtain an overall passing average grade in the Total Individual Evaluation portion of the final course grade (minimum of 30% of the 60% combined marks assigned to the individual components of the course – Individual Leadership Plan and the Course Exam). Your team work marks are factored in after you have succeeded in your individual evaluation components, and you cannot rely on your team members' efforts to pass.

**Team members can be "fired" for failure to perform their duties at a satisfactory level.

The Leadership course has been designed to assist in your development as a leader and a follower. Since leadership and management are not mutually exclusive, the course material contains a blend of traditional and innovative approaches. These experiences are focused towards personal development and team effectiveness. The course materials (class text and course pack of readings) have been selected for their professional discussions about leadership and management. These, along with assignments and exercises, will provide you with a number of leadership tools to assist with your understanding of the motives of leaders and managers,

Notes*2. Team Work Assignments (30% of grade)

Three formal assignments will be completed in teams. These include:

- a. Interview of a Local Leader which entails analysis and application of leadership theory from your text and course readings in a written report and discussion of findings in class (13%);
- b. Analysis of Leadership in a Movie which entails the application of leadership theory from your text and course readings as well as from outside sources in an oral presentation (12%); and
- c. Group Dynamics Presentation which is a final oral presentation (5%) about your group's profile and team development throughout the course.
