Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course students will be able to

- analyze the causes, types, and repercussions of change in organizations.
- explain the links between strategy, structure, culture, and change and development.
- apply the principles, methods, and tools of organizational development within the context of process consultation.
- demonstrate an effective client consulting process.
- propose diagnostic tools for identification of organizational problems.
- plan interventions based on relevant organizational data and context.
- integrate change management models and methods (strategic, structural, cultural, and human process interventions).
- assess organizational development intervention outcomes.

Notes

Students must earn half of all available exam marks to achieve a passing grade in the course.

Students must take an active rather than passive role in class.

Participation grades are based on the quality and consistency of an individual's contribution during class, beyond simple attendance.

Classes will involve 3 components of team presentation: Seminar-style discussions (15%), reading facilitations (15%) and case analysis presentations by student teams (15%).
