Business Administration

Course Number:
Course Title:
Credits:	3
Calendar Description:	Formerly BUAD 339. This course explores sustainability theory and sustainable management practices for private-sector business. Environmental, social and economic concepts are integrated and applied across business disciplines. Sustainability models and evaluation frameworks are used to understand how sustainability can impact strategic thinking, operational decision-making, and performance reporting.
Semester and Year:
Prerequisite(s):	A minimum of third year standing
Corequisite(s):	None
Prerequisite to:	None

(Course Captain)

Upon completion of this course students will be able to

- explain sustainability issues in a business context.
- assess business practices using the three pillars model of sustainability.
- evaluate business sustainability reporting using contemporary reporting methods.
- describe environmental economics and environmental valuation methods.
- explain how human resources management builds capacity for sustainable management.
- recommend sustainability initiatives throughout a firm's entire value chain.
- critique a firm's sustainability strategy.
- compare a firm's stakeholder engagement strategies to current sustainability guidelines.

This course will cover the following content:

See the Course Schedule below

Sustainable Management

Learning Activities	15%

Sustainable Management

	•
		Monday January 8th, First day of class
		Monday February 19 th , Statutory Holiday (no classes)
20	24	February 20 th thru 23 rd , Reading Week
Wee	ek of	Friday March 29th and Monday April 1st, Statutory Holiday (no classes)
	Jan 8	Sustainable development in a	Ch 5 PRME, the UN Global Compact and
1		business context Introduction to the	the Sustainable Development Goals in
		Patagonia Case Sustainable	The Business Student's Guide to
		Management Mentorship Training	Sustainable Management
2
_						